Let the Blue Bus Take You on Your Next Trip

Summer in North Central New Mexico is a season made for exploring and the Blue Bus is here to take you there. Whether you're heading to a mountaintop hike, browsing a farmers market or planning a cool escape from the heat, we've got the routes, tools and tips to get you there fare-free.

In this month's edition, we're featuring four great routes, the 310 Red River, 255 Mountain Trail, 305 Taos Express and 810 Mora. Plus, we're including trip planning resources and local activities to help you make the most of your summer adventures.

Scenic Rides to Red River, Taos and the Sangre de Cristos

If the mountains are calling your name, the 310 Red River and 255 Mountain Trail are the perfect routes for you.

310 Red River

Whether you're heading up for a hike, browsing the shops along Main Street or participating in one of Red River's many summer events, the 310 Red River route gets you there without the hassle. It's a perfect option for families, solo adventurers and anyone looking for a daytrip that feels like a getaway.

Support Local, Ride Local

Summer is farmers market season, and the Blue Bus can get you there. From Taos to Santa Fe and Española, farmers markets are filled with local produce, handmade goods and community. Browse the local selections and ride home with fresh-picked ingredients. Here are a few markets worth the ride:

- Taos Farmers Market – Saturdays on Taos Plaza
 - Ride the 305 Taos Express
- Española Farmers Market – Mondays at the Española Plaza
 - Ride routes 110 Westside/Crosstown or 190 Chama
- Santa Fe Farmers Market – Tuesdays & Saturdays at the Railyard
 - Ride routes 305 Taos Express

And don't forget, summer also brings art fairs, festivals and outdoor concerts. Keep your eyes on community calendars and let the Blue Bus take you to the festivities.

Helping A Friend In Need

Our very own Transit Driver, Juan, was recently featured in a story written by Española Humane about the compassion he and a community showed a local dog.

Because of their kindness, the stray, blue-eye dog "Quill" now has a home, a bed and all the love he deserves.
